ITINERARY OVERVIEW

➤ First Stop:

Ipsos Cave (4 or 6 hours half day cruise)

Included in our extended half-day cruises (4-6 hours), the Ipsos Cave is a hidden gem nestled along the northeast coast of Corfu.

This secluded spot impresses with its wild natural beauty — dramatic rock formations, crystal-clear waters, and peaceful surroundings.

Drop anchor and enjoy a swim in the cave's calm waters, snorkel around the rocky edges, or simply take in the untouched scenery from the comfort of your boat.

It's the kind of place that turns a cruise into an unforgettable experience.

Ipsos Cave

Glyfa Beach

➤ Second Stop:

Glyfa Beach (4- 6 hours half day cruise)

We begin our journey with a stop at the charming Glyfa Beach, located between Barbati and Nissaki on the northeast coast of Corfu.

This quiet, pebbly beach is known for its crystal-clear waters, lush green surroundings, and a serene atmosphere that makes it a true hidden gem of the island.

Whether you choose to swim in the refreshing Ionian Sea, relax under the sun, or simply take in the view of the impressive coastline, Glyfa offers the perfect balance of tranquility and natural beauty. It's an ideal first stop to unwind and set the tone for your unforgettable day at sea.

Agios Arsenios Cave

➤ Third Stop:
Agios Arsenios Cave (4-6 hours half day cruise)

Our voyage continues to the charming cave of Agios Arsenios.

Under the rocks there is a very special cave. We entered from one side and exit from the other passing under the rock while diving. The waters are deep but spotless! And have a green-blue color, like emerald. This stop is part of our cruises that last 4 to 6 hours, offering you the chance to explore its magic up close.

➤ Fourth Stop:
Kerasia Beach (6 hours half day cruise)

On our 6-hour half-day cruise, we visit the peaceful and secluded Kerasia Beach.

This hidden gem offers crystal-clear waters, a quiet coastline, and a truly relaxing atmosphere far from the crowded spots.

Whether you want to swim, sunbathe, or enjoy the scenery from the boat, Kerasia is the perfect stop to slow down and connect with nature.

This location is exclusively included in our 6-hour cruise itinerary, offering you a unique and tranquil experience.
